A Mistaken Grand Duke
Happy Mule
The Reticulated Python
Optimistic Wall Street
By Arthur Brisbane

...AND DUCK CYRIL VLADIMIROVITCH, head of the Romanoff family, and lucky for him outside of Russia, thinks he will be czar. He is mistaken, but his statement that he would keep the present Bolshevik system of government, extracting it from a "logical, constructive phase," is enlightening.

Relations of the czar apparently have discovered that Bolshevikism, giving hand instead of blows to the peasant, and education instead of ignorance to the masses of Russia, interests Russians.

Just now Russia is more interested in the question of what happened to Trotsky? than in any visionary grand duke's plans. Whether Trotsky has "surrendered" or what happened to him nobody knows.

It is dangerous for a denoted revolutionary leader to disagree with those in power.

"Honest Ben," a mule, having worked many years for the city of Atlanta, now old and feeble, was to be slaughtered and fed to lions in the zoo.

Atlanta's kindhearted mayor, Russell, will buy the mule, and pension him.

A kind thought. Many an old man that cannot be used for anything, because, tender-hearted laws forbid it, while they don't forbid old men and women to worry themselves to death, might almost wish they were deserving mules.

"De Gashbain non est disputandum," which means, "There is no quarreling with another man's back."

A young Chicagoan, formerly a reporter at $15 a week, suddenly built to a fortune of $100,000 a day, has decided how to spend his money.

He will go to Rome, hunting a "perfect specimen of the renaissance prince." Biggest prize he knows to man. He takes a scientific expedition with him, and his time will not be wasted, but how many "prizes" could one young man take of it? He had $100,000 a day, leaving the renaissance prince in his own device.

Another week opening funds will stop referring to be scared to death. "Spooks" are the old dog. "Fray, ever faithful," will not drive them away.

Back up the business side, and I'll tell you. "I think stocks are going to be weak, and I am going to buy them." The price fell up their little heads as soon as the market opened, and kept them up.

One comforting fact for gentlemen that speculate in stocks, and paying 10, 12 and more percent for money. Federal Reserve Bank in 1928 made a net profit of $6,405,200, or $14,000,000 more than in 1927. It seems only reasonable that the Federal Reserve Bank, efficient in putting up interest rates, should get a good share of the profit.

Clarence Darrow, able lawyer, says the crime was due to "the curb on liberty."

Lack of liberty may distress some, not many. Bootlegging, and paying over to the government, of alcoholic drink, makes millions formerly collected by the government on the sale of alcoholic drink, makes millions formerly collected by the government on the sale of alcoholic drink, makes millions formerly collected by the government on the sale of alcoholic drink.

A preliminary the old man went shopping for a cheap funeral. He had a net worth of $100, was willing to accept a coffin of plain boards, but nobody would bury him for so little.

When everything else has been investigated, it might be worth while to investigate the high cost of dying.

Many a widow finds herself poor and in debt after the funeral of a husband's funeral. Thinking it disgraceful to question the price, when the loved one is concerned, women often pay $400 for a coffin that cost $100, and they hire long strings of automobiles that the corpse does not need.

Many women are in the British Parliament. One hundred of them will run for Parliament presently, seven of them with titles of nobility. Here we only have three, women in Congress, able women, three, but not enough.

Pleasant news is an announced discovery of gold in Texas and New Mexico.

The bank, said to be equal in quality German postal deposits, cover $100,000,000.

Let us hope it will be possible to let far have some of that "willing material" and a fair profit to us that did it.

ROSE PASTOR STOKES FOR 2 YEARS A SECRET BRIDE

SHE'S NOW STEP-MOTHER OF BOY

New York, Feb. 19 (INS)—Rose Pastor Stokes, the "Howe of the leftists," whose romance with J. G. Phelps Stokes, an industrialist and philanthropist, got into the divorce courts in 1925, has been a secret bride for two years, the Evening Journal revealed today.

Thus she identified herself as the step-mother of nine-year-old Jerry Romain, boy intellectual, who was elected to her hand when she and 220 other strike pickets were arrested in the garment district. She was accused of not sending the child to school.

She now is the wife of Isaac Romain, long known in Greenwich Village as a labor leader. At present she is tutoring the children of a rich and socially prominent New York family, said the former Mrs. Stokes.

She and Romain greeted a reporter in their four-room apartment on the fringe of Greenwich Village, Jerry, the child prodigy, was asleep.

His step-mother is under some stress to appear Thursday in municipal court to answer a charge of violating the State education law by keeping him out of school.

The summons was issued after she and several other alleged radicals were dismissed following their march about the garment zone.

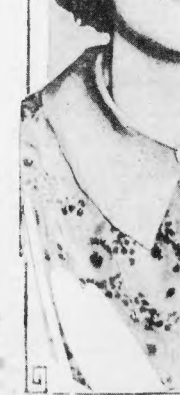

Mr. Stokes Romain, storm center of the countless Communist trouble since she left her workbench in an East Side cigar factory years ago, who was once sentenced by the Government to 10 years' imprisonment for sedition, uttered, disclaimed for scraps uttered, in her husband's lap.

During her court appearance she exclaimed about the lad: "He is my son by every right but birth."

She said she does not care to reveal the place where she and her train were married nor the exact date.

The juvenile delinquency problem is solved by taking a juvenile, quarantined and confined in a hospital, and placing him in a family.

RESCUES HER MOTHER

Fear Missing Girl, 4, Has Been Slain

San Francisco, Feb. 19 (INS)—Rewards totaling $2,500 had been offered today for the discovery of four-year-old Doris Virginia Smith, who was last seen Friday. It is believed that she has been abducted. Police have advanced two theories concerning the disappearance of the child. One is that she was kidnapped and probably murdered, although they have failed to unearth any tangible clue. The second theory is that Doris might have been kidnapped by relatives.

Central Council to Elect Officers

Officers will be elected by the Central Council of Irish County Associations Friday night in John Boyle O'Reilly hall, Hibernian building, Dudley st., Roxbury. Dr. P. J. Kelly, outgoing president, will not be a candidate for re-election. His place will be filled either by Miss Anna J. Cull or Roy Joseph Finnegan, Daniel Doherty, organizer, and Michael Dowd are candidates for first vice-president.

MAKES TO DUTY

Two days of unrelenting air flight from the coast of the late Dr. Charles D. McCarthy, Sr., once mayor of Malden, "died in business" much in the manner his father did. He had been ill for two years but against the advice of other physicians continued to visit his patients and to perform his duties as head of the health board.

WAS WAR HERO

The doctor was a graduate of Tufts and was engaged in studies in Germany when the war broke out. He became first a member of the French Foreign Legion ambulance corps and was decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor.

Later he was attached to the American medical units, and was cited for his services. He was 37 years old.

Bauer Picks 100 for Tercentenary

Mayor Bauer of Lynn appoints a committee of 100 citizens from Lynn, Saugus, Nahant, Swampscott and Lynnfield, to handle the program for Lynn's tercentenary celebration during the last week of June.

From the committee of 100, Mayor Bauer picked an executive committee of 24 members of which Benjamin M. Johnson, president of the Lynn Historical Society, is chairman. The executive committee includes Mayor Bauer and 31 members of the city council, Congressman William Conway, Jr., of the seventh district; members of the Legislature from the district, Eugene B. Fraser of the Governor's council, Charles A. Collins, Nelson J. Darling, Harvey R. Gruver, Dr. George W. Hayward, Charles E. Prichard and Arthur W. Pinkham.

Dedham Boy Hurt By Auto in Boston

Fifteen-year-old Philip Moody of Greenwood st., Dedham, suffered bruises and lacerations of face and leg today when bowled over by an automobile in Boston. He was taken to Haemmerling Relief hospital and the machine of Sgt. Harold M. Weeks of the army intelligence office at the army base.

OUR TO STAY AWAY

Married teachers now employed in Sangerville schools learned today that the matrimonial ban adopted by an overruling vote of the school committee will affect only those who take the matrimonial step in the future.

Introduced by School Committee member Francis J. Daley, the ordinance reads that resignation from the teaching force shall follow the marriage of any woman teacher.

Mayor Leon M. Conwell, David V. Ross, president of the board of aldermen, and Miss Minnie S. Turner were the only members of the school board who voted against adoption. The ordinance reads: "No married woman now in the service of the school board shall hereafter be elected as a permanent teacher, unless conclusive evidence proves that she is living apart from her husband legally and receiving no financial support from him, or that the husband, through permanent mental or physical disability is unable to provide for her support, or that she is a widow."

School Committee member Daley argued that single girls are a large number of which are the main support of their families, deprived of opportunities to obtain permanent positions because of the number of women who remain at their posts after marriage.

MAIDEN LIFE WINS AIR RACE WITH DEATH

The speed and certainty of airplane flight gave Dr. Charles D. McCarthy of Malden the final joy of a sight of his beautiful young wife, who was killed in the crash of a biplane on Sunday.

By dashing to the flying field at Nassau, Bahamas, on the receipt of a cable that her husband was in the city, Mrs. McCarthy was able to reach his bedside five hours before his death.

In the first place, she was a doctor, and she was a woman of the highest caliber. She was a woman of the highest caliber. She was a woman of the highest caliber.

LAUDS READER OF NEWSPAPERS FROM FLAMES

War, Feb. 19-16 Hope, ill with influenza, unable to leave bed and alone in home at the time, was saved from being burned to death by the timely passing of Lawrence Margala and Joseph Loonik, both of West Warren.

The men were passing the house when they noticed the smoke and flames issuing from the doors and windows of the residence, which was located in West Warren.

Knowing Mrs. Hope, who is 73 years of age and a cripple, was in the house, they carried her to safety. The house was destroyed by flames.

Fatally Burned

HEARST AND COL. KNOX AWARDED FLAG MEDALS

Y. REEFS SHIP DOWN

Despite warnings that three members of the Yankee Division memorial committee, who are high federal officials, will lose their jobs unless the committee changes its decision to use the Canard Line in transporting the 113th division to France in September, the committee has decided not to cancel its contract.

The warning of possible loss of their positions unless the United States Lines are used for the 113th division caused a scandal among the committee members and veterans of the famous division, as soon as it was handed down. The officials in question are now for the Canard Line.

They were elected to the committee, which includes a dozen prominent men, by the veterans of the 26th Division. The two have been active in veterans' affairs here since the signing of the armistice.

None of the trio would discuss the threat made against their positions last night in any of its phases. They referred only questions regarding the Canard Line to Gen. Sherburne, chairman of the memorial committee, and of the sub-committee.

The committee which arranged with the Canard Steamship Line to convey the veterans and their wives and relatives to France this September, selected the line which it thought would furnish the transportation it sought, he said.

Brockton, Feb. 19—Alexander Silva, alias John Russell, alias John Leonard, alleged safe cracker, whose capture on last Thanksgiving morning is believed to have frustrated an attempt by himself and an escaped convict to rob the safe of the Community Bankers, Inc., here, is on trial on indictments for breaking and entering, carrying burglar's tools and carrying a loaded revolver in a motor vehicle.

SNOW, SLIGHTLY COLDER IN HUB

The predicted western cold snap was diverted from New England early today by a storm area stretching from New York to Texas, carrying snow in its train and due to precipitate a flaky blanket here within 24 hours.

All Empire State weather stations, with the exception of Albany, reported falling snow in their early morning returns, while Burlington, Vt., at the same hour also experienced a snowfall.

Localized in the Dakotas and Minnesota, the night wave has reduced the mercury along the Canadian border to marks 42 below zero, but hope is still held out here that its southward movement will effect the escape of New England from the brunt of the blast.

CITED FOR SERVICE IN EDUCATION

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 19 (Universal)—For valiant service rendered the flag of the United States, William Rainey Hearst, newspaper publisher, and Col. Frank Knox, general manager of the Hearst newspapers, have been presented with the Cross of Honor, highest decoration of the United States Flag Association, by Col. John A. Alton, president of the association.

The presentation took place at the annual meeting of the association, which was held at the Hotel Commodore in New York city.

The Cross of Honor was awarded to Mr. Hearst and Col. Knox in recognition of their valiant service of the United States flag during the war.

Through the contest the Hearst newspapers will come to exercise the right of the United States flag to the greatest information for education, Americanism, and the duty of any organization in the country except perhaps the public school system, Col. Alton declared.

Brockton, Feb. 19—Alexander Silva, alias John Russell, alias John Leonard, alleged safe cracker, whose capture on last Thanksgiving morning is believed to have frustrated an attempt by himself and an escaped convict to rob the safe of the Community Bankers, Inc., here, is on trial on indictments for breaking and entering, carrying burglar's tools and carrying a loaded revolver in a motor vehicle.

Silva was arrested by Patrolman Silvio M. Stone of the Brockton police, who, with other officers, surprised the alleged criminals while they were at work in the bakery office.

Officer Stone testified that he first saw Silva in Silva's direction and then the latter fled. He said he at first gave his name as John Russell of Cambridge. When searched, the officer said, a flashlight, a chair and a brick-punch were found on the person of Silva.

"If you want to keep slender (and who doesn't in these days) avoid sweets and smoke Lucky Strikes. There seems to be something about them; possibly the flavor, that satisfies the craving for the rich things that add weight.

"Voilà," reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet—the trim figure is always fashionable. Advertisements that I saw when I recently arrived in America, said:—"The best way for sugar to be eaten is as a flavorer of foods". They are quite correct in cautioning a modified use of sugar. Sweets to excess are bad, I advocate a few puffs of the Lucky Strike toasted flavor when sweets tempt.

"I may add that I smoke Lucky Strikes myself, and I think they have contributed much to the state of mind which has helped me to create my greatest success.

"Lucky Strikes are certainly an inspiration!"

PAUL POIRET

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

Reference librarians in public libraries, college heads and officers of clubs throughout the country write in requests similar to the following from Miss Eunice E. Christensen, reference librarian of the Denver, Iowa, public library and showing the nationwide interest in the temperance contest.

CALL FOR DETAILS

"We have frequent calls for details concerning Mr. Hearst's temperance prize contest and would be very grateful for any information which could be sent to us."

All such inquiries, it should be noted, may be referred to any of the temperance contest editors of the newspapers mentioned in the list of the contest, or may be sent directly to the contest headquarters at No. 22 South St., New York.

Further comments from men of affairs on the temperance prize contest and the principles involved in its conduct, as given to representatives of Hearst newspapers, are submitted.

BENJAMIN F. AFFLECK, president of the Universal Portland Cement Company, and president of the Union League Club, Chicago, is a believer in temperance in the use of alcoholic beverages as well as other kinds of drink, food and habits, and no one recognizes more fully than the civil of excessive indulgence in alcoholic beverages and the evils of the old time saloon.

EVIL'S CORRECTION

"But correction or removal of evil is not the end. It is the correction by legislation. If we say, 'We will not,' the matter is settled, but if someone else says 'Thou shalt not,' the question is not settled."

Human conduct cannot be controlled by prohibition, compulsion, coercion or restraint. These laws are effective only so long as and to the extent they are applied, but as long as the man nature is what it is (and it has not changed for thousands of years) human beings will not obey laws which they think are wrong and which a very small

CHANGE OF LAW'S URGED

Statistics available from 584 police departments of the United States, as the result of a national survey of prohibition in 1928, reveal to contestants in the Hearst $25,000 temperance prize contest the amazing conditions which have resulted, despite attempts to enforce the Volstead Act.

These figures as made public recently show:

- 1—In 584 towns, cities or localities arrests for drunkenness increased from 680,122 in 1924 to 676,208 in 1925; to 690,928 in 1926, and to 701,944 in 1927.
- 2—In 818 places arrests for drunkenness in 1927 reached 238 per cent of the figures for 1923, the first year of national prohibition, which was the lowest year for drunkenness.
- 3—In 588 places from which figures were available from 1914 to 1927 inclusive, arrests for drunkenness in 1927 were higher than in any previous year, save only at the nationwide peak of 1916. The 1916 peak was 502,384 arrests for drunkenness, and 1927 almost reached it, with 527,208 cases.

The report of this survey made at the instance of some of the most distinguished citizens of the United States, including physicians, insurance companies, heads of great industrial corporations, churchmen, university professors and civic leaders, declared:

"When we consider that drunkenness generally has already increased in the prohibition level, and that drunken children have increased for about anything ever known before in this country, we cannot escape the conclusion that the Volstead act has failed miserably to do what it was intended to do, namely, promote temperance and sobriety."

"Moreover, since prohibition has become worse, not better, each year, and with the fact, emanating from drinking at saloons, there seems to be no hope that the Volstead act, in its present drastic form, can ever accomplish its purpose."

"From the experience, before national prohibition, of the cities which had restrictive laws, from the experience of the whole country during the restrictive years 1918-1919, and from the experience of the Canadian provinces and the Scandinavian countries we believe that a greater degree of temperance can be attained by a wise restrictive law than by a temperance law which does not command the respect of a large part of the people."

"We are also of the firm conviction that such a policy of wise restriction would have the incidental advantage of eliminating almost entirely the scandalous corruption and bribery of public officials, would stop the growth of the bootlegging industry, would check disrespect for law, and would in addition produce a handsome national revenue."

Here Are Rules in Hearst Temperance Contest

His purpose of the contest is to obtain a practical plan, as a substitute for prohibition, which will secure better actual temperance conditions which will be more easily possible of enforcement by State and Federal authorities, which will offer less encouragement to crime and tend less to denigrate the public service and which will not so outrage and violate the fundamental rights and personal liberties of American citizens.

The rules and conditions of the contest are simple and are as follows:

- 1—Every person is entitled to enter the contest, but no one person may submit more than one plan.
- 2—The practicable plan proposed as a substitute for prohibition must be set forth in an article containing not more than one thousand words.
- 3—This contest will close on April 30, 1929, and no plan which has not been mailed and postmarked on or before that date will be considered.
- 4—The articles submitted in the contest will be judged by a committee of eminent Americans, the personnel of the committee to be announced at a later date.
- 5—The full prize of $25,000 will be awarded to the contestant submitting the best plan at a practicable temperance substitute for prohibition.
- 6—If other plans not awarded the first prize shall still be considered worthy of some compensation by the committee, a second prize of $5,000 and other prizes of $1,000 each may be awarded.
- 7—Articles submitted in the contest to be considered in this contest may be sent to the Temperance Contest Committee, care of the editor of any one of the following, Hearst newspapers: Albany Times Union, Atlanta Georgian, Baltimore News, Boston Evening American, Chicago Herald and Examiner, Daily News, Los Angeles Examiner, New York American, Omaha Bee-News, Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Rochester Journal, San Antonio Light, San Francisco Examiner, Syracuse Journal, The Post-Intelligencer, Washington Herald, Wisconsin News (Milwaukee).

HOOVER IS NOW NEARING THE CAPITAL

By GEORGE E. BURNS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Ahead of Hoover's flight to Washington, Feb. 19—Passed and rested from a month's stay in Florida, President-elect Hoover was nearing Washington today prepared to take over active direction of the first month's work of the President-elect's office.

The President-elect will go immediately to his $3 at dawn upon arrival. It has been based upon up headquarters there for 10 days before leaving before leaving for a tour of the United States.

During the morning Mr. Hoover worked on his inaugural address, and the President-elect's staff in relays and revising preliminary drafts.

Blames Officers

The merits or demerits of the prohibition law are in a sharp field of controversy. It is one I have studiously refrained from entering. The thing I stress most, and have always stressed, is the practical necessity for all law enforcement officers to recognize that the law is on the statute books, and the disregard of it by such officers can only bear fruits that result in corruption, violence and murder.

MURPHY NICHOLSON, distinguished Indiana novelist—believer the Hearst Temperance Contest is a good thing. Prohibition is one of the most serious questions with which this country has to deal at present. The one suggestion I make, however, is to make the matter the better it will be for our country.

I certainly hope that the Hearst contest will bring out some real suggestions.

TERRIBLE AFFAIRS

JAMES J. NEJDIL of Whiting, Indiana, State Senator, a Republican, and one of the most powerful figures in the Indiana legislature—I am glad to hear that the contest is a good thing. The temperance problem with his eyes open and that he is not committed to any indorsement of the present practices under the prohibition law.

It is only by attempting to solve this problem with an open mind that tangible results can be

EASTERN RAIL MERGER PLAN IS SMASHED

Cleveland, Feb. 19 (AP).—The Cleveland Plain Dealer says today that the Van Sweringen and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad have withdrawn from the "four party" conference of the Eastern rail systems looking toward a division of the lines into a four trunk system, and that a brief will be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission this week advancing new plans for railroad consolidation.

Failure to arrive at an agreement with the New York Central and the Pennsylvania railroads, after three years of negotiations, has compelled the Van Sweringens and the Baltimore & Ohio to advance from other quarters, says the newspaper.

In the negotiations which they inaugurated, the Van Sweringens advocated establishment of a "four party" agreement, giving the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore & Ohio a gateway to the Atlantic seaboard through Pittsburgh, leaving Buffalo as the gap through which the New York Central and the Van Sweringen lines were to reach the East.

The Pennsylvania opposed these overtures, it was said, through a desire to maintain all roads at their present ratio of strength. The Van Sweringens, with a number of un-united roads, and the Baltimore & Ohio with a smaller system, sought to create a balance.

No official confirmation of the move could be had at the Van Sweringen offices, says the Plain Dealer, nor were any of the proposals reported to be first with the Interstate Commerce Commission announced.

Newton Changes Traffic Signals

Motorists travelling on Commonwealth ave., through the Newtons after 12 o'clock midnight and until 7 o'clock in the morning, will no longer be governed by the automatic "stop" and "go" signal system, as the beams will flash a yellow caution light during these hours.

The change was put into effect after midnight was not great enough to warrant the use of the regular signal system. It is said that several other cities in Greater Boston are likely to take similar action.

Campbell "Sure" of New Auto Record

Cape Town, South Africa, Feb. 19 (AP).—Capt. Malcolm Campbell returned to Cape Town after making an aerial survey of the track of sun-baked clay at Vermeik Pan on which he hopes to attain a new world speed record for motor cars. He was confident of breaking the existing record for motor cars in an hour, as he thought the track was the best in the world.

Fr. Riley Preaches in Roxbury Today

The Rev. Charles E. Riley of the Holy Name Church, West Roxbury, preaches today at the church of Tuesday, being held at St. Joseph's Church, Circuit of Roxbury, in honor of "The Little Flower of Jesus." Fr. Riley preaches at both the 2:45 and 7:45 p. m. services.

MEXICO PLAYS UPHEAVAL TO CATHOLICS

Mexico City, Feb. 19 (AP).—According to the Secretary of Interior, a statement published in Mexico City newspapers today, that the church authorities had it within their power to restore peace in Mexico.

It was merely necessary, he said, to comply with the constitutional regulations on religious subjects.

The statement is an answer to that published yesterday from Mar. Miguel de la Mora, bishop of San Luis Potosi, and spokesman for the Mexican Episcopate, who denied participation and responsibility in recent Mexican bomb attacks. This responsibility had been alleged by President Portes Gil.

Canales said the Catholic clergy continued its work from 1919 to 1920 under the same constitution which is now in effect. It finally suspended religious services in 1926 with enforcement of the legal regulations based on the constitutional provisions as a pretext.

These legal regulations, he added, do not affect the religion itself. The statement says it is public knowledge there is an armed movement against the government, reference being made to insurgent activities in states of Jalisco, Guanajuato and Michoacan.

Government Acts to Crush New Revolt in Mexico

Mexico City, Feb. 19 (AP).—Under the personal leadership of Gen. Joaquín Amaro, Minister of War, the Government is rushing preparations today to combat the threatened revolution, which appears to have centered in Sonora or other northern states of this republic.

Gen. Amaro is in the field, at the head of a large army.

So far as known here there has been an overt revolutionary movement, nor any clashes between its surreptitious forces and Federalists, aside from the scene of the religious conflict in Jalisco.

"Gosh, I'm Lucky!
Ten Years in Jail!"

Providence, Feb. 18.—Sent to state prison today for ten years Charles Kelly, 35, said, "I'm lucky I thought I was going to get 20 years."

He was accused of stealing 20 autos, entering 14 houses and committing a holdup, but instead of trying him on these counts, of which he received a suspension of a 10-year sentence for robbery originally imposed a few months ago.

Lawyer Guilty in Thefts

New York, Feb. 19 (AP).—David H. Gladstone, lawyer, pleaded guilty today to three federal indictments charging embezzlement of approximately $800 while acting as receiver and trustee in bankruptcy and also with filing false reports with a referee in bankruptcy.

525 DETECTIVES FACE GRILL IN MASSACRE

Chicago, Feb. 19 (AP)—Every detective on the Chicago police force was called for questioning in the gang massacre investigation today. Each was asked:

"Where were you last Thursday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock?"

That was the hour in which seven of George (Bugs) Moran's men were killed in a North Dearborn street. State's Attorney John A. Swannson issued the order for the questioning.

"It isn't because Swannson believes the gang killers were led by city detectives," one of his aides explained. "It is because he is not absolutely sure they were not."

Most witnesses have mentioned that the slayers used a detective bureau car. Several said two of them wore police uniforms.

NEW RAID MADE

Police Commissioner Russell is convinced no policemen were involved, but he is lending his assistance to the state's attorney to clear up the mystery.

There are 525 men composing the mobile squads of the detective bureau. One hundred have been questioned. Results of the questioning were not announced. The 100 interrogated were detectives who were on duty at the hour of the assassination. Detectives who were off duty are to be similarly questioned.

Just before this new inquiry was started, David Stanbury, assistant in charge for the state's attorney, made a tour of the neighborhood in which the killings occurred. A postman a block from the scene was raised and five men arrested.

POLICE ACE ON JOB

There was a report, which the state's attorney would not discuss, that a special meeting of the grand jury had been called for today. This was taken to indicate the investigators had sufficient evidence to warrant immediate presentation.

Floods Add Horror in Ice-Clad Europe

London, Feb. 19 (AP)—Flood terrors, captured rivers of bitter cold over a large part of Europe today. The tempests, which have swept over their banks and forced many persons from their homes, are melting snow and ice, causing disastrous floods in Macedonia and Thrace.

Danubian rivers overflowed, while rising temperatures in northern Italy foreshadowed swelling river tides.

It was reported from Stockholm that the ice barrier along the southern and southwestern coast of Sweden was growing steadily. Numerous skaters were still to be seen in the Baltic sound and the Cattegat.

GREAT VARIETY IN DOG SHOW ENTRIES

But one day remains before the Eastern Dog Club opens its 17th annual dog show at Mechanics Building for three days. With 125 dogs being shown throughout that time, representing 41 distinct breeds, this show ranks all records for the number of dogs entered.

Never before has the New England dog loving public been offered the chance to see such a large gathering of dogs of high degree for the Eastern Dog Club show this year is the largest ever held in New England.

In all the well known breeds there are a wealth of entries. Breeds which are known to every one will be there in plenty. In the lesser known breeds there are also good entries and a number of breeds which have not been seen in these parts for many years will be there.

One, not so many years ago, the pug was one of the most popular breed of dogs being shown. And then the fashion changed. The breed disappeared as fast as a popular fad. Now it is again in vogue. In all-breed dog shows they went lower and lower in the entry list until they were no more. The Eastern Dog Club was no exception. For a number of years past no pugs have appeared. This year there will be two.

3 PUGS ENTERED

These two representatives of most popular breed of dogs of 30 years ago are coming down from New York. They are owned by Mrs. Sarah Waller of that city, and they go by the names of Dulliner and Roadway and Major Duro of Roadway. Both are sure to attract much attention, especially from the younger generation which probably has never seen any of these dogs except in the old-fashioned china painted dog room.

Another breed that has not recently appeared in the Eastern entry list for at least four years in the Boston show is the Bedlington terrier. In England the Bedlingtons are gaining more and more in popularity every year, but they have been slow in attracting the spread attention in America. Lieut. Col. Robert Goughen of the Frenche Kennels, however, has had many of these dogs in his care for a long time and this year he is bringing four of them to the Boston show, where they are to be sought out by all the fanciers, who will have their first chance lately to glance at such pretty little dogs.

UNUSUAL ENTRIES

In the top classes there are some unusual entries. For instance, three Chihuahua, a very small little animal, will be seen, and one top black and tan will be an exhibition. Owing to the larger breeds one finds their spots where across the show ring. These dogs are strikingly handsome animals, somewhat reminiscent of the bull terrier. The Bordeaux kennels of Providence, R. I., will show their champion, Queen. One Belgian sheepdog, absent from last year's list, will be shown.

Two Archdukes Earn Their Living as Air Pilots

Vienna, Feb. 19 (AP)—Archdukes Franz Josef and Anton of Austria have adopted aviation as means of earning a living. The two young noblemen, who are nephews of the late Emperor Franz Josef, have become pilots on airplanes carrying passengers and goods between European airports. They are the only European royal personages engaged in this hazardous occupation.

The two archdukes left Austria when the Hapsburgs were deposed and went to Barcelona, Spain, where they arrived almost penniless. They found work, first as electricians and later as engineers, and finally saved enough money to buy an airplane.

They have settled in England and became British subjects.

SMUGGLE 'EM IN ON FORGED VISA

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 19 (AP)—An alien smuggling ring of considerable proportions was indicated here today by the testimony of Nicholas Anagnostopoulos, a Greek immigrant, before a federal immigration inspector. Anagnostopoulos was held in $1000 on a charge of violating the immigration laws.

He said he arrived at Providence, R. I., on February 27, 1917, with 30 other Greeks, after having paid $500 to a booking agency at Athens for passage and papers procuring entrance into this country.

He said he was looked under the assumed name of Anthanasios Kapsanopoulos, and was given a Greek passport passport issued by William P. Morton, American consul at Athens.

He said he was also given a certificate of identification and a pass port, and to have been given by the Greek consul at Chicago. All these papers, he declared, were given him already prepared except for a visa.

If You Find 'Honey' Send Him Back to Phyllis Russell

Her pet absent now for two days with no clues to his whereabouts, little Phyllis Russell, six, of 25 Leonard st., Dorchester, is nearly heartbroken.

"Honey," a Spitz-Pomeranian, has been the boon companion of Phyllis since he joined the Russell household a year ago. Phyllis is joined in her grief by her sisters, Mildred, 10, and Marie, 12, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Russell.

"Honey" disappeared from the yard. At first it was thought he had been stricken with wanderlust, but now his pining cries follow him have been picked up. Police of the Hyde Corner station are aiding in the search.

Phyllis is a very pretty girl, and a good student. She is a member of the Girl Scouts and has been given a certificate of merit.

REPARATIONS PARLEY HALTS

Paris, Feb. 19—A sub-committee of two members appointed by the reparations commission to outline procedure for the future ran into a snag and has been enlarged.

The committee, consisting of Sir Josiah Stamp of Great Britain and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the German Reichsbank, reported today they had failed to find a mutually acceptable procedure. The full committee then added Jean V. Farnetier of France, Prof. Guichard of Italy and M. Gut of Belgium to the committee which will report tomorrow.

The procedure the five are asked to determine is enable both debtor and creditor in the reparations account to submit an offer and put in claims that might form the groundwork for the main committee's further deliberations.

DRIVER HELD IN COP'S DEATH

Adolph J. Boule of 116 Evans st., Dorchester, was arraigned before Judge Lummus in Superior Criminal Court on an indictment charging him with operating a motor vehicle as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. He pleaded not guilty, and was held in $500 for trial.

It was alleged that Boule was the driver of an automobile that struck Sgt. James W. Brooks on Columbus rd., near Upham's Corner, on January 19 last, and that Brooks subsequently died from the injuries he suffered.

At the time of the accident Sgt. Brooks was attached to the office of Det. Atty. William J. Foley, who had charge of the investigation and checking of trial lists.

FLAG BOARD

CHALLENGE

FEEL

ANY responsible adult, in individual or organizations, wishing to conduct a Flag Contest may do so by organizing a Flag Board, consisting of five or more persons, which function as an organization and be charged with conducting a local contest unit.

This is in answer to the many hundreds of requests from individuals to conduct local contest units in the nationwide patriotic Flag Contest now being conducted by the United States Flag Association. Flag contests may be conducted by any responsible group provided it has the minimum of 25 participants.

It is the hope of the United States Flag Association that every boy and girl in the United States, who is eligible and desires to participate in Flag contests, may have the chance to do so whether or not he or she belongs to a school or other juvenile body that is conducting a local Flag contest.

For instance, a bank in New Jersey is conducting a contest for boys and girls in the community by organizing a Flag board headed by the bank president.

EDUCATIONAL

Those outside of school (both private and parochial) patriotic organizations, parent-teacher associations, civic bodies, boy scout troops, girl scout troops, church groups, etc., may have the opportunity of helping to organize a Flag board in their respective localities.

As an educational and patriotic movement for the youth of the country.

Another Step Forward in Better Housekeeping

With the help of woman's page editors of the foremost magazines and newspapers, housekeeping methods have undergone a complete change. The day of long hours of unnecessary labor and drudgery and back-breaking toil has gone. In its place, through the investigations, discoveries and advice of these editors, the minimum amount of work now does each of the required tasks of housekeeping.

Recently they turned their attention to the problem of bathroom cleaning, and especially to that of cleaning the toilet bowl. For there it was, they realized, that much effort was wasted, and not much accomplished. A two-fold difficulty existed: to keep the toilet bowl always shining, white and to keep it always germ free and sanitary.

They discovered that a film was continually forming from the flushing action, that germ, dirt and soap build freely in the film, particularly growth the rim around the top of the bowl. These germs, disease laden were a menace to the household. And therefore that place must be kept immaculate.

First they tried powders. But powders would not clean that rim. And scrubbing brushes could not reach it. Then they tried a liquid, called Solv-A-Lite, which solved the problem. Solv-A-Lite instantly dissolved the film. A wire-handled brush, this brush, each toilet, made it easy. This brush, not only made it easy, but it will sweep gently around the rim, immediately wash away all the film and film and germs. Only a minute's work was needed.

And of course Solv-A-Lite cleaned the rest of the bowl, thoroughly and easily. A few drops, poured in the water, worked off the own, worked almost immediately dissolved all discolorations and very stains. The scrubbing was eliminated, and time saved for the busy housekeeper.

The three women's magazines, which are outstanding, and which are read by millions of housewives, have given their unqualified approval of Solv-A-Lite after exhaustive tests. They have found it to be the best toilet bowl cleanser ever used, which meets all demands of the modern housewife. It is a safe, efficient method of quick, efficient cleaning.

Solv-A-Lite is not poisonous. It is harmless to the hands and woodwork. It works so easily that the housewife, using it regularly, can always be sure her toilet bowl is shining white—and absolutely sanitary.

Solv-A-Lite is already being used by thousands of women in every grocery store for twenty-five to fifty cents a bottle, with the handy brush enclosed.

BIG AWARDS

The additional awards are here-with condensed for those who may not yet have read the initial announcement of them which was made in the Boston Sunday Advertiser. They are as follows:

- 1—Instead of but one boy and one girl being given the three months' cruise around the world, TWO boys and TWO girls will be awarded this grand prize.
- 2—The 36 regional champions—18 boys and 18 girls—who were by the original provisions of the contest to have been given a week's tour of the patriotic shrines of the East, will be given a TWO WEEKS' tour. The trip will be extended to permit the party to visit historic spots in New England, Saratoga, New York City, Gettysburg, etc.
- 3—Each of the 36 regional winners, in addition to the trip to the patriotic shrines, will be given scholarships worth $200 each, these awards to be applied to any school, college or institution.

which the winner may select or to any other purpose of an educational nature which may be selected. Similar scholarship awards will also be made to the two boys of each region making the second and third highest mark in the contest, and to the two girls from each region making the second and third highest marks. The various medals and certificates of honorable mention will also be awarded just as set forth in the original announcement.

In tomorrow's Boston Evening American will be another set of eight questions. Do not fail to cut them out and save them.

Full information regarding the Contest may be had by writing to the Flag Contest Editor of the Boston Evening American.

Attention

Any school or organization that has not yet received an invitation to conduct a Flag Contest from the United States Flag Association need not wait for such an invitation but may communicate directly with the Flag Contest Editor of the Boston Evening American. All information will be gladly furnished as well as all supplies necessary to conduct a Contest free of cost.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO START

The contestants will have several weeks yet in which to prepare their answers to the questions and their essays.

PASTOR TELLS OF IDEALS OF IRISH RACE

Praising the Irish race, before the members of the Charitable Irish Society at their monthly meeting in the Hotel Bellevue, Mr. Michael J. Spillane, D. D., minister of the church of St. Mary of the Assumption, Brookline, said: "Their long-suffering patience under overwhelming odds has at times awed serious bloods."

"They have not, as is said, hated discrimination with a dignified silence and have won recognition from both hands."

"They have clung to their ideals for which they stand for the Christian spirit of not retaliating. They have been willing to forgive and to forget. They have brought a political system with them that is bound to succeed because it is built upon the principle of love of one another."

Mr. Spillane traced the origin of the spiritual contribution of the Irish to America from the time of St. Patrick, who converted them to Christianity.

Mr. Spillane said that St. Patrick gave the Irish a "destiny and a mission," and added that they have always tried to follow them.

Mr. Spillane concluded by pointing out that the "wonderful, pure, unadorned, unadorned, unadorned" for religion may be traced to the influence of St. Patrick.

President Hugh A. Carey presided at the meeting. Mr. Carey is also a member of the Charitable Irish Society. He was assisted by Walter C. Blankenship, pianist.

Health Authorities Say Children Need Not Catch Cold

Modern Mothers Build Up Youngsters' Bodily Resistance. They Realize the Value of the Tonic That Is Rich in Carbohydrates.

Stop the cold before it comes. Don't wait for the first cough or sneeze. Old-fashioned mothers used to think that children had to catch cold. They did not know that there was any way to avoid it. But health authorities declare that any child, or adult, in perfect health, should be able to resist cold germ, even though exposed to infection.

Armed with this knowledge, modern mothers build up their youngsters' bodily resistance. They realize also that the craving for growing children have for sugar and all sorts of sweets is natural. It shows that their little bodies need the special nourishment furnished by carbohydrates, the food element that furnishes bodily heat and energy.

That is why Hoff's Malt Extract has proven to be such an ideal tonic for children—because it is rich—not in the ordinary carbohydrates found in all sweet foods, but in the readily assimilated carbohydrates of maltose and in dextrose, which converts starch into sugar and thus assists the whole process of digestion.

At the same time, if a cold has already started, mothers do well to add the daily use of Hoff's Malt Extract as an important part of the treatment to get rid of colds. In fact, and has more of the mercurial symptoms, externally or internally, but they are reinforcing the whole bodily strength of their youngsters.

RAPID GROWTH IN ELECTRIC INDUSTRY

According to the National Electrical Association, during 1923 the output of the electrical industry in the United States has practically doubled, the total being approximately 23,000,000 KVA at the present time.

There has been constructed during the same period 1,000,000 KVA of new generating capacity in addition to many thousands of new distribution circuits.

The output of electrical equipment has also doubled, and the number of customers has increased more than 10,000,000. About 14,000,000 customers were supplied in 1923, the total at the end of

Why Reserve Board Should Now Pause, Waiting Events

By R. C. FORBES

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. A pause in the action of the Federal Reserve Board is desirable, it is contended by many observers, in view of the fact that the board has been operating on a basis of emergency measures since the beginning of the year. The board's action in raising the discount rate to 6 per cent and in requiring banks to maintain higher reserves has been hailed as a victory for the "strong money" party. But it is pointed out that the board has not yet had time to consider the effect of these measures on the economy as a whole. It is suggested that the board should pause for a few days to allow the market to adjust to the new conditions before making further moves.

The Federal Reserve Board has succeeded in obtaining what it desired, namely, a 6 per cent discount rate. But the board has not yet had time to consider the effect of these measures on the economy as a whole. It is suggested that the board should pause for a few days to allow the market to adjust to the new conditions before making further moves. Bankers in National Move for Uniform Financial Practice

By S. H. HOLT

President State Bank Division, American Bankers' Association. The interchange of business and the quick transportation of goods in the United States require uniform financial practice. It is suggested that the board should pause for a few days to allow the market to adjust to the new conditions before making further moves. The board's action in raising the discount rate to 6 per cent and in requiring banks to maintain higher reserves has been hailed as a victory for the "strong money" party. But it is pointed out that the board has not yet had time to consider the effect of these measures on the economy as a whole. It is suggested that the board should pause for a few days to allow the market to adjust to the new conditions before making further moves.

The state bank division of the American Bankers' Association, after a long and arduous struggle, has succeeded in securing the passage of a resolution which calls for uniform financial practice throughout the United States. The resolution is a landmark in the history of the banking industry, and it is hoped that it will lead to a more uniform and efficient financial system.

MAY SUCCEED STEWART

Kenneth R. Kingsbury (A.P. photo), president of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, refuses to discuss the report that the Rockefeller interests are considering him as a possible successor to Col. Robert W. Stewart in case Stewart is ousted as chairman of the Standard Oil of Indiana.

RESERVE BOARD MAY SWING BIG STICK

The renewal of the Federal Reserve campaign to restrict the issue of credit is being watched with interest by the public. It is pointed out that the board has been operating on a basis of emergency measures since the beginning of the year. The board's action in raising the discount rate to 6 per cent and in requiring banks to maintain higher reserves has been hailed as a victory for the "strong money" party. But it is pointed out that the board has not yet had time to consider the effect of these measures on the economy as a whole. Looks Ahead

The Federal Reserve Board has succeeded in obtaining what it desired, namely, a 6 per cent discount rate. But the board has not yet had time to consider the effect of these measures on the economy as a whole. It is suggested that the board should pause for a few days to allow the market to adjust to the new conditions before making further moves. DEAD MAN'S TREASURE by JOHN GOODWIN

Six-Day Novel by a Famous Author

Henderson Ker, ex-Chicago police lieutenant, is vacationing at Repps Grange, a country estate in England. Cicely Frazer, his young niece, keeps house for him and is in love with Jack Shirley, struggling young playwright and neighbor.

Dr. Leigate, a neighbor, and Basil Mostyn, a great friend of Jack's, both propose to Cicely. Leigate's expression after her refusal as she sees his reflection in a mirror frightens her. Jack is already married to a drunkard known as Three-Fingered Anne. Basil tells Cicely this and offers to do all he can to help Shirley when she tells him she cannot return his love.

CHAPTER 2

Cicely was awakened this morning by a sharp knock. She opened the door and found a man standing on the porch. He was a stranger, but she recognized him as the man who had been in the room the night before. He was a young man, with dark hair and a mustache, and he was wearing a dark suit. He looked at her for a moment, then he turned and went back into the room. Cicely closed the door and looked at her watch. It was ten o'clock. She had just been to bed. She had been thinking of the man who had been in the room the night before. She had been thinking of the man who had been in the room the night before. She had been thinking of the man who had been in the room the night before.

Stribbling Always Followed Father's Training System

H. L. Stribbling Jr.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 19.—Long ago when father was training me to be an athlete, he said: "There's only one way to keep in condition at ALL times and that is NEVER to let yourself get out of condition."

I haven't forgotten that as a pupil, nor has father ever ceased to preach that to me.

The best proof is the fact that in a six foot tall young man I have developed one ring battle every 10 days a record, I believe which is not easily broken by any active young man.

Most fathers go into the ring about every six weeks or two months, always preceded by a rather strenuous training period during which they have had to pay out money to spare parts and profitable, rather than a means of expense. I have been training for five years, and I have never had a day when I have not been getting paid for it.

My training program for a big fight doesn't differ much from that for a small one except, of course, the touch the fooman and the suffer the pace he may as the baster I strive for durability and speed.

Most fathers do their work in the morning. I do mine in the evening, after work, three or four times a week, a half hour of relaxation and then dinner.

I usually turn in about 10 at night, but if I feel like staying later I do so. If I can sleep for ten hours, fine. If I can sleep for eight hours, fine. If I can sleep for six hours, fine.

I think nature requires how much sleep a human needs. Some like to sleep five or six hours. As far as I am concerned I sleep until I wake up and then, if I am no longer sleepy, I get up whether I have had six hours sleep, seven, eight, nine or 10.

In the matter of diet, well, I haven't any set rules. That comes down as the result of father's labors.

"EAT whatever agrees with you and don't eat anything that your stomach can't handle, no."

Jack Sharkey a 6-5 Betting Favorite

By JACK CONWAY

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 19.—Jack Sharkey was installed a 6-to-5 favorite for his ten-round bout with Young Stribbling, which will be staged at Flamingo Park on February 27.

It is the first time Sharkey has been a betting choice here since the bout was arranged. Up until today Stribbling ruled as favorite.

The opening odds were 7 to 5 in the opinion of the bookies. They then tightened up to 7 to 6.

There was very little Stribbling money there. There were plenty of bets on Sharkey who were sure to win.

There is plenty of money on Sharkey. This is due to the fact that there are thousands of tourists here from the North.

Most of them are plentifully supplied with the goods of the world, and for sentimental reasons alone, they would be for Sharkey to look.

The race track sharpshooters are betting Sharkey because they believe he is the better fighter. They look upon Stribbling as a heavyweight, but they do not believe the Georgian can stop Sharkey at least 10 rounds and still win.

The race track men have been helping the Stribbling battalions. They are anxious to make Sharkey look as though the Georgian has an excellent chance to knock Sharkey out. They believe this kind of propaganda will tend to good, but the betting odds. This will give those of them who play Sharkey a better break.

HIG BETS TO COME

I have not seen any large bets made on the probable outcome of the bout. There have been numerous bets on Sharkey, but the boys have not got so excited over what they would risk their dough.

It is not expected that there will be a great deal of big bets made on the outcome of the bout. The details in connection with it.

MR. BOSTON
By Jack Conway

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 10—Mr. Boston left a memo with the hotel clerk that he had gone over to Palm Island to see Al Capone and Uncle Billy.

Capone is the more or less highly press agented leader of Chicago gangland, while Uncle Billy is the man who built the famous three miles of causeway wheel, connects the water of Ma-nuh and Ma-muh Beach.

In his memo, Mr. Boston requested that I call for him with the car as they don't have taxi stands at Palm Island.

Mr. Boston spoke about Capone's speed boat. "Uncle Billy is a lovely character. He is a man of some 60 years. He weighs close to 300 pounds and, like most big men, has a heavy head, a fair head and the ability not only to make friends, but also the ability to keep them. Uncle Billy has a mansion near Capone's home on Palm Island."

Some of the natives tell me Uncle Billy has a cool $10 million, but then the home town girls and boys are prone to exaggeration. I did hear, though, from Uncle Billy's own lips, that he started in life as an ordinary state mason, but that now he tackles million-dollar contracting jobs as part of the day's work.

Down here in Ma-muh Uncle Billy's word is law. So it was a matter of interest when I found Capone, Uncle Billy and Mr. Boston together.

HORSE who live with Capone at Palm Island call him CHIEF. When he wishes something to be done, he gives his order in terse language. It is obeyed instantly. He reminds me a great deal of the military leader of 300 years ago. He always knows just what he wants and never changes an order, while nobody makes any suggestion to him.

Ralph Capone, brother of Al, also lives on Palm Island. He is not so big as Al, has jet black hair and a keen look in his eye. "Jack Sharkey also liked it, and he told me he was going to buy a similar boat after his bout with Bribbling," said Capone. "Brib, Sharkey over to the island some afternoon and we'll go out for a spin. You know the boat can do 42 miles an hour. I get great enjoyment out of my speed boat."

"You must also try my speed boat," interrupted Uncle Billy. "I don't think it is quite as fast as Alf's, but it is pretty good."

THE BAER FACTS — By 'BUGS' BAER

TWO of our biggest heroes are about to be standardized.

No man is a hero to his valet.

No to his wife.

The only difference is that you can fire the valet.

Look at Gene Tunney's case.

Has the world champion whipped anybody since he has been married?

They still cheer Tunney in Europe.

But his wife stands up and takes the bow.

As an established married man, we admit that Lindy is still showing courage.

The heroes steering airplanes are outnumbered by the heroes piloting baby carriages.

There is one detail about that marriage ceremony which may be of service to Lindy.

He should insist on retaining his maiden name.

It is quite a shock to be famous all your life, then get married and have to be introduced all over again.

Lindy's record flights are over. You can't get anywhere with eight bat boxes, jet trucks and a lawn mower.

The Colonel is back in the ranks.

Mrs. Melvin Sweet Tells How Cuticura Healed Her Baby.

"When my baby was fifteen months old eczema broke out in a rash on her body and caused quite a bit of discomfort. There were two patches each as large as a silver dollar, and the irritation bothered her. She was fretful, and the trouble lasted about six months. I promptly purchased Cuticura Soap and Ointment and started using them. In three months the trouble was better, and in six months all signs of the trouble had disappeared." How Weak Nervous Women Grow Stronger

They made an after-dinner speaker out of Capt. Fried.

Lindy is going to be married.

Fried was the hero who rescued everybody. But who will rescue Fried?

After the captain's sixth after-dinner speech he will sadly admit that the theme song of life is still a rhapsody.

And to more will Lindy visit Paris alone.

There are millions of broken-hearted girls who loved the Eagle.

Now he has been taken out of circulation.

WASHINGTON—"I owe it all to my mother." With these simple words Congressman Frisby today accepted the cash prize for the first non-stop flight on foot. The finish was dramatic. Twice Frisby sat down on the ground, the crowd hooted. He was hooted back from the end of his goal. Commissioner Whalen, who had come all the way to greet Mr. Frisby, saved the day.

He encouraged the staggering Congressman with several well-directed kicks—and when Frisby whimpered Whalen started to threaten him with arrest. The Interleg Congressman carried a note to the American ambassador, and is resting tonight at a local auto camp.

A person can't afford to be too polite in this country. People are apt to think you're been working as a waiter in a private theater.

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a table-spoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.

His Cough Worried Family—Ordinary Remedies Did Him No Good

COUGHED WORSE NIGHTS AND WHEN INDOORS

"My husband months ago saw a doctor who said he was all right but that cough clung to him night and day. He would come into the house, into the house, Movie or Church and soon he would be having and coughing terribly and at night he was all stuffed up." —Mrs. D. B. M.—

"He even took Cold Liver Oil, although he hated it. I finally told our doctor who laughingly said: 'Then are all alike and you can't blame him much, so get him a little of Lin-O-Nine, which is a nice tasting Flavored Oil, Cough Syrup, Balm, and a Glycerine remedy, far better than Cold Liver Oil and cough cures.'"

RESULTS WONDERFUL

"He liked Lin-O-Nine so well he took a spoonful before meals until the whole bottle was gone. It not only stopped his cough—but built him up, too. I never saw medicine work such wonders before. Lin-O-Nine, since Lin-O-Nine, has been a cough and a dollar bill to nation."
